A history is judged by both

Myers's Histories

have achieved the foremost place among books in their field and they continue to hold that position. Reinforced by searching and thoughtful revision, by the addition of much valuable information, and by many new illustrative features, the books today command the attention of educators to an even greater degree than in the past.

Myers: ANCIENT HISTORY
(REVISED EDITION)

Myers: MEDIAEVAL AND MODERN HISTORY
(REVISED EDITION)

“Ancient History” treats fully all important events down to A. D. 800. The companion volume, “Mediaeval and Modern History” goes back and takes up the narrative again with the fall of Rome, carrying it forward and through the Great War to the signing of the Armistice in November, 1918.
